

Quality Policy Punch Metals

- Punch Metals is a supplier of punched parts, laser parts, welded parts and assembled parts for the automotive, trucking and non-automotive industry.
- Punch Metals is specialized in the development of production processes with focus on customer, quality, efficiency and environmentally sensitive production. We also offer our customers the necessary knowledge (co-engineering) with regard to product optimisation and competitive production.
- In cooperation with our most important stakeholders we seek to reduce the risks to a minimum for our customers and the environment.
- As a company we want to improve continuously, innovate, but we also strive for maximum quality, cost awareness and service for our customers. Punch Metals offers overall solutions to its customers, which enables them to obtain their goals and benefit from them in a competitive way.
- Our quality management system according IATF 16949:2016 turns Punch Metals into an interesting partner for our employees, customers, suppliers and surroundings.